A-1015 GOSPEL READING: MATTHEW 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

We ask that you pray for our military personnel, and their families, serving in our armed forces. Among them are our own parishioners, and family members: Charles Berninger, Christopher Berninger, Michael DeCoeur, Michelle Geers, James Pritchett, Billy Schamber, David Sellers, Joshua Jambard, and Vincent Serafini.

MEDITATION:

"Free will makes us able to love and to sin. Suffering is the result of sin. God does all he can to change suffering from that which crushes and destroys into something that exalts and renews. This is a miracle effected only by absolute love."
- Caryll Houselander († 1954). Abbreviated.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION:

Interested in the Catholic Church? Please call 850-745-8359 to be directed to Eileen Schamber about Inquiry Classes and RCIA.

Join us Saturday October 31 for a movie night at the church, for all students and families. We will show COCO! This is a celebratory way to connect with All Souls Day (which the Catholic Church celebrates), reminding us how we should remember and pray for our loved ones who have passed on.
