A-858 GOSPEL READING: MATTHEW 24:37-44

For as it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. In [those] days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day that Noah entered the ark. They did not know until the flood came and carried them all away. So will it be [also] at the coming of the Son of Man. Two men will be out in the field; one will be taken, and one will be left. Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken, and one will be left. Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour of night when the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and not let his house be broken into. So too, you also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.

Victims of Abuse

The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee is committed to healing the hearts of sexual abuse victims and has established Victim Assistance Coordinators, experienced and trained counselors available to help persons who have been sexually abused.

We ask that you pray for our military personnel, and their families, serving in our armed forces. Among them are our own parishioners, and family members: Charles Berninger, Christopher Berninger, Michael DeCoeur, Michelle Geers, James Pritchett, Billy Schamber, David Sellers, Joshua Jambard, and Vincent Serafini.

MEDITATION:

The deepest cry of the human heart is for union with God. God answers that prayer: In the Incarnation of his Son, and at the end of time when he returns in majesty. We spend our lives “watching” in ardent hope for when we see his face and will be saved. - Magnificat, November, Vol. 22, No. 9., pg. 405. Abbreviated.
