B-959 GOSPEL READING: MARK 4:26-34

He said, "This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come." He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade." With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it. Without parables he did not speak to them, but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.

We ask that you pray for our military personnel, and their families, serving in our armed forces. Among them are our own parishioners, and family members: Charles Berninger, Christopher Berninger, Michael DeCoeur, Michelle Geers, James Pritchett, Billy Schamber, David Sellers, Joshua Jambard, and Vincent Serafini.

MEDITATION:

What do my actions mean to anyone and what are they worth? They are little drops in a vast ocean, tiny grains of sand. Lord, you made me your child not only for my personal happiness, but to entrust me with a particular mission within your plan of salvation. Lord, help me to meditate unceasingly on the advice of St. Leo the Great: "Christian, be aware of your dignity!" Perhaps I am only a grain of sand, but every grain has its own place, its special role to carry out-the sole condition is my awareness of this reality and my unity with all others. - Ven. Francis Xavier Nguyễn Văn Thuận (+ 2002). Abbreviated.
