B-962 GOSPEL READING: MARK 4:35-41

On that day, as evening drew on, he said to them, "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took him with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

We ask that you pray for our military personnel, and their families, serving in our armed forces. Among them are our own parishioners, and family members: Charles Berninger, Christopher Berninger, Michael DeCoeur, Michelle Geers, James Pritchett, Billy Schamber, David Sellers, Joshua Jambard, and Vincent Serafini.

MEDITATION:

God Our Father, we give you thanks and praise for the gift of fathers as a reflection of your own fatherhood to us. May fathers everywhere, in all stages of their fatherhood draw from you, strength, wisdom, knowledge and the depth of your profound love, as they mold, shape and care for their children and grandchildren. We pray for fathers, grandfathers and great-grandfathers who are no longer with us but whose love lives forever in our hearts. Thank you, heavenly Father for this gift of love. Amen.

Don't print documents unnecessarily and use double-sided printing if you can. Recycle all paper, boxes, catalogs, and magazines. To stop getting unwanted catalogs and junk mail, see suggestions from Harvard Law School by Googling "Harvard reduce junk mail." Burning paper returns carbon to the air and burying it in landfills under tons of other waste in anaerobic conditions produces methane, a greenhouse gas more harmful than carbon.
