A-985 GOSPEL READING: MATTHEW 15:21-28

Then Jesus went from that place and withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon." But he did not say a word in answer to her. His disciples came and asked him, "Send her away, for she keeps calling out after us." He said in reply, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." But the woman came and did him homage, saying, "Lord, help me." He said in reply, "It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters." Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed from that hour.

We ask that you pray for our military personnel, and their families, serving in our armed forces. Among them are our own parishioners, and family members: Charles Berninger, Christopher Berninger, Michael DeCoeur, Michelle Geers, James Pritchett, Billy Schamber, David Sellers, Joshua Jambard, and Vincent Serafini.

MEDITATION:

Pope Francis, "in the hour of trial faith brings light." The terrible trial of the demonically tormented child could have wrecked the Canaanite woman's spirit with despondency and defeat. [...] Faith lifts her from hopelessness and carries her to the "holy mountain", Christ. Christ's silence does not dissuade her. It serves to steel her belief, showing a new tack to beg for what God is eager to give her. - Magnificat, August 2020, Vol. 22, No. 6, pg. 250 . Abbreviated.
