A-988 GOSPEL READING: MATTHEW 16:13-20

When Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” They replied, “Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Simon Peter said in reply, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” Jesus said to him in reply, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.” Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Messiah.

We ask that you pray for our military personnel, and their families, serving in our armed forces. Among them are our own parishioners, and family members: Charles Berninger, Christopher Berninger, Michael DeCoeur, Michelle Geers, James Pritchett, Billy Schamber, David Sellers, Joshua Jambard, and Vincent Serafini.

MEDITATION:

Pope Francis, "in the hour of trial faith brings light." The terrible trial of the demonically tormented child could have wrecked the Canaanite woman's spirit with despondency and defeat. [...] Faith lifts her from hopelessness and carries her to the "holy mountain", Christ. Christ's silence does not dissuade her. It serves to steel her belief, showing a new tack to beg for what God is eager to give her. - Magnificat, August 2020, Vol. 22, No. 6, pg. 250 . Abbreviated.
