Reflection on Sunday’s readings:

First reading: “vanity of vanities! All things are vanity!” we toil and labor all day, worry all night about work and what we must still do, for what? We live for a higher purpose – we live for our God and for the things that matter to him. Our time, talents, and treasure have an everlasting focus because we recognize that these things are all gifts from God and we use them in gratitude to give him Glory.

Second reading: Reminds us how to go about making decisions so that we can make the best use of the gifts that we have been given. “Think of what is above, not of what is on earth.” Too many people in our materialistic world, setting priorities that are focused on earthly goals like wealth, status and power is foolish and naïve, life is not about “stuff” Take care to guard against greed, for one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.

Lord God,
You blessed Elizabeth Seton with gifts of grace;
As wife and mother, educator and foundress,
So that she might spend her life in service to your people.
Through her example and prayers
May we learn to express our love for you
