We must be prudent in dealing with people, but stewardship wants us to have a different outlook towards others. We must approach others – not in a suspicious state, but in a loving hospitality. This is the attitude of our heavenly Father when he looks upon creation.

Reflection on Sunday's readings:

First reading: In the modern world we view others with suspicion and guardedness. We install security systems and alarms. We constantly scroll through cell phones instead of talking with people next to us. This is the attitude of our heavenly Father when he looks upon creation, as in the Book of Wisdom.
Second Reading: Far deeper than good manners or a superficial exchange of pleasantries, the virtue of hospitality is the outward expression of this way of seeing people as God sees them. Let us pray that God will open our minds and soften our hearts to those around us so that we are ready to set aside our own plans for their sake, find the goodness within them, and call it forth as Jesus does for each one of us.

Intercessory Prayer to Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Lord God,
You blessed Elizabeth Seton with gifts of grace;
As wife and mother, educator and foundress,
So that she might spend her life in service to your people.
Through her example and prayers
May we learn to express our love for you
In love for our fellow men and women.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever. Amen.
