EASTER SUNDAY

Let us rejoice and be glad! The great feast of Easter has begun, Christian stewards. Just as we embraced the discipline and fasting of Lent, let us now embrace the joy and feasting that the next 50 days offer. We are called to be good stewards of the Easter Season.

Reflection on Sunday's readings:

First reading: First Reading from Acts, St. Peter says that our Lord "commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead...that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name." We do this by living our ordinary lives-through the intentional use of our time, talent, and treasure for the kingdom of God. We must put God and others ahead of ourselves in every aspect of our lives.

Second Reading: First, we learn of Mary Magdalene's response. She "came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark." She remained focused on herself, despite all the trauma of witnessing the crucifixion. She realized the tomb was empty-she ran to Simon Peter and the other disciple to tell them. They all ran to see this for themselves. As stewards, we are called to this same devotion to our Lord, with the same passion, and the same determination to remain near to Him- no matter what.

Intercessory Prayer to Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Lord God,
 You blessed Elizabeth Seton with gifts of grace;
 As wife and mother, educator and foundress,
 So that she might spend her life in service to your people.
 Through her example and prayers
 May we learn to express our love for you
 In love for our fellow men and women.
 We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
 Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
 One God, for ever and ever. Amen.
