Reflection on Sunday's readings:

First reading: In practicing stewardship, we recognize that our resources are not ours alone, but gifts entrusted to us by God. We are called to use these resources wisely, responsibly, and selflessly, considering the needs of others and promoting the common Good. Our discipleship, on the other hand, challenges us to continually seek the transformative power of God's love in our lives, as we strive to imitate Christ and spread His message of hope and salvation.

Second Reading: St. Paul beautifully articulates the depths of God's love for humanity. He reminds us that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us, reconciling us with God and offering us the gift of salvation. These verses reveal the heart of the Gospel message and provide us with a foundation for understanding stewardship and discipleship. Stewardship and discipleship are intimately connected in our Catholic Faith. Stewardship is not limited to the responsible use of material possessions but extends to the care and love we show towards all of God's creation. We must be willing to step out in faith, be empowered by the Holy Spirit, and be instruments of God's grace & healing.
