Basics of Stewardship Living

Today's readings take us back to the basics of stewardship living and demonstrate the genius of this way of life, showing us the necessity and power of hospitality. It also reminds us of the power of our Baptism and how this sacrament makes us disciples. We must live for Christ! Nothing less will do.

Reflection on Sunday's readings:

First reading: Our first reading from 2 Kings – shows us how important and necessary the power of hospitality really is. A woman shows her hospitality by inviting a visitor into her home, with her family, to enjoy a meal and she extended her hospitality by arranging a comfortable room for him to stay overnight, while he was traveling. That is the essence of Christian hospitality. This man was the prophet Elisha. He rewarded her kindness by interceding with God to obtain for her the miracle of a baby boy- after years of infertility.

Second Reading: Letter to the Romans, St. Paul reminds us of the power of Baptism and how this sacrament makes us all disciples. “We must think of ourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.” Nothing less will do. We can only love others, and ourselves truly, if we allow ourselves to be emptied of self-love and filled with God’s love. We have come full circle to the importance of hospitality, and to putting God first in our lives because we have become disciples of Christ through our Baptism. We put God first by serving others as if we were serving Christ Himself, thus losing a self-centered life and finding our true fulfillment.

Intercessory Prayer to Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Lord God,
You blessed Elizabeth Seton with gifts of grace;
As wife and mother, educator and foundress,
So that she might spend her life in service to your people.
Through her example and prayers
May we learn to express our love for you
In love for our fellow men and women.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever. Amen .
