So often, the prayers that we pray, the service we offer, the gifts we give—in comparison to the immense needs around us—can seem laughably small. God sees and treasures and feeds our offerings of time, talent, and treasure in ways we cannot begin to imagine.

Reflection on Sunday's readings:

First reading:

God is just as well as kind, all powerful as well as merciful. He is indeed kind and loving, but He is also a just judge, and the day will come when we will have to give an account for what we have done with the gifts of time, talent, and treasure that He entrusted to us during our lifetime. We will be judged by God for the part we either played or did not play in the building of his kingdom.

Second Reading: Jesus gives us comfort and hope. If we are but faithful stewards of the gifts entrusted to us, the day will come when we "will shine like the sun in the kingdom of (the) Father." In justice, in gratitude, in love, then, let us remain faithful to the mission entrusted to our care for the building of the kingdom of heaven.

Intercessory Prayer to Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Lord God,
You blessed Elizabeth Seton with gifts of grace;
As wife and mother, educator and foundress,
So that she might spend her life in service to your people.
Through her example and prayers
May we learn to express our love for you
In love for our fellow men and women.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever. Amen .
