The wisdom of God is very different than the wisdom of the world. God reminds us that the commands from Him are more precious than gold. Every Scribe trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings forth new and old treasures. Are you joyfully willing to give up your treasures for God?

Reflection on Sunday’s readings:

First reading: This first reading tells us how Solomon requested the gift of understanding instead of material goods or power. The psalm reminds us that God’s commands are more precious than gold. This highlights the huge value of the Kingdom of Heaven, comparing it to a treasure hidden in a field and a pearl of great value. This shows us the worthiness of sacrificing everything to possess and experience the Kingdom’s blessings. We must be willing to sacrifice worldly possessions in order to obtain the Kingdom’s eternal riches. When God offered to grant Solomon a wish, and he asks for an understanding heart to distinguish right from wrong. God granted Solomon unrivaled wisdom.

Second Reading: In this reading, we are to work for God’s purpose. Jesus gives us parables related to the Kingdom of God, including the treasure in the field, the pearl of great value, and treasures new and old. Jesus urges his disciples to become like scribes trained for the kingdom, emphasizing the need for attentive listening, understanding and applying the Kingdom principles in their lives.

Intercessory Prayer to Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Lord God,
You blessed Elizabeth Seton with gifts of grace;
As wife and mother, educator and foundress,
So that she might spend her life in service to your people.
Through her example and prayers
May we learn to express our love for you
In love for our fellow men and women.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever. Amen .
