The correct answer was given by Peter..."You are the Christ, the Son of the living God". If we believe that Christ is the Son of God, then we must say so, not just with words but with our actions. Do my ambitions and priorities in life say that Christ is my Savior and I am His disciple?

Catholic Church to unite as many people as possible – whether Catholic or not – to share and listen to what “Journeying together” means for the Church. Bishop Wack invites you to prayerfully consider sharing your feedback in a six-question Synod survey. Visit: ptdiocese.org/synod to participate

Reflection on Sunday’s readings:

First reading: Our readings today challenge us to look at the truth about ourselves. The gifts and blessings that God has given us-our time, talents, and material possessions – are meant to be used in a manner that says” Christ is my Savior and I am His disciple.” The most eloquent praise we can offer Him is a life lived in grateful response to His unfathomable love. This is the beauty and power of a stewardship way of life.

Second Reading: Jesus is getting personal with us today. He poses that same question to every one of us who call ourselves His stewards and modern day disciples. Surely, we would answer as Peter did, that Jesus is the Christ, Son of the living God. The question remains, - Does your life reflect that answer? If we truly believe that Christ is the Son of God, sent to save us from our sins, and lead us to heaven, we must say so-not by saying it, we must show Him by our actions. The most eloquent praise we can offer Him is a life lived in grateful response to His unfathomable love. This is then the beauty and power of a stewardship way of life.

Intercessory Prayer to Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Lord God,

You blessed Elizabeth Seton with gifts of grace;

As wife and mother, educator and foundress,

So that she might spend her life in service to your people.

Through her example and prayers

May we learn to express our love for you

In love for our fellow men and women.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,

Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

One God, for ever and ever. Amen .
