Living the Stewardship way of life. Do not think for a minute that it will be easy. It is the work of a lifetime. In the end, it is the only work that really matters and the only life that truly satisfies. Jesus tells his disciples that "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross and follow me".

Reflection on Sunday's readings:

First reading: Our readings today reflect a very challenging reality. Jeremiah shows us that to live the stewardship way of life, we must make a choice. Dying to self and living for Christ and others, or the love of self. God is so good, so loving, so generous to us that, like Jeremiah, even when we are tempted to give up and throw in the towel, we simply cannot turn our back on Him. We must remain steady on the stewardship way of life.

Second Reading: St. Paul's letter to the Romans teaches how we get back to the path of discipleship in moments of discouragement. When we feel the temptation to just give up and give in to selfishness, Paul urges us, "Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God" You must be transformed by the renewal of your mind, the way you think, so that you may do the will of God. This means we must discipline ourselves—body, mind and spirit- through Consistent prayer life, continuous formation in our Catholic faith, and setting aside what is not pleasing to God. It is all about love. Jesus loved (and loves) us totally, giving us all of Himself on the Cross, in His Word, and in the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist.

Intercessory Prayer to Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Lord God,

You blessed Elizabeth Seton with gifts of grace;

As wife and mother, educator and foundress,

So that she might spend her life in service to your people.

Through her example and prayers

May we learn to express our love for you

In love for our fellow men and women.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,

Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

One God, for ever and ever. Amen.
