Each of our emotions are gifts from God. Are we in a position to steward them well, or do we allow them to overcome us? Do we embrace the stewardship mindset, or do we harbor the hurt and anger towards others? We must focus on the gifts God has and is giving us with His Love!

Reflection on Sunday's readings:

First reading: Our first reading, from Sirach, brings to light the emotion of anger. How can we feed anger toward another, and expect the Lord to heal our hearts? Each one of us has experienced anger to one or another- but, we must remember that our emotions are gifts from God. We can not allow anger to take over our lives. Sirach tells us that we must "Remember your last days, set enmity aside—Remember the Most High's covenant and overlook faults." We are to embrace the stewardship mindset and not brood over hurts.

Second Reading: We must remember, we live for God and not ourselves. The Lord loves us completely and we can rest in this truth. We do not need to hold onto anger over injustices. St. Paul says it this way in our second reading from Romans: "For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord, so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's". This is why we must look inward to the state of our hearts—the deepest part of us—our thoughts and emotions.

Intercessory Prayer to Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton

Lord God,
You blessed Elizabeth Seton with gifts of grace;
As wife and mother, educator and foundress,
So that she might spend her life in service to your people.
Through her example and prayers
May we learn to express our love for you
In love for our fellow men and women.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
One God, for ever and ever. Amen.
