November 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our diocese will participate in the national collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) on November 18/19. Your support for this collection brings much-needed help and change to our brothers and sisters across the country. Nationally, CCDH-funded groups tackle a wide range of economic and social justice challenges, including housing, education, mitigating the impacts of climate change, and advocating for healthy foods in urban food deserts. In addition to making a national impact, the CCHD collections allow us to help those living in poverty or suffering from the symptoms of poverty right here in our own community.

Some of the ministries in our diocese have benefited from funds from the CCHD collections:

- Diocesan "Culture of Life Conference."
- Justice United Seeking Transformation, an interfaith non-profit based in Escambia County, addressing the high rates of youth arrests and lack of affordable housing.
- Capital Area Justice Ministry is an interfaith non-profit based out of Leon County seeking to address gun violence and the lack of affordable housing in the Tallahassee Area.

In addition, our Director of Advocacy and Justice has been working with local organizations and parishioners to promote the Good News in other ways:

- Floridians for Alternative to the Death Penalty seeks to end the use of the death penalty in Florida.
- Sponsorship of parishioners to attend the Eucharistic Revival in Indianapolis in summer 2024.

All of these organizations are in line with Catholic Social Teaching, and there is a strong Catholic presence in the leadership of these organizations/ministries.

Thank you for your support of this year's CCHD collection.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend William Wack, CSC
Bishop of Pensacola-Tallahassee

The Word of the Lord is filled with what we are very familiar with in our society, which convey so much meaning. "Service and Humility"- very powerful words. They reveal to us all that we need to understand to be a true disciple of Christ. Our society wants us to strive to be Number 1, but Jesus reminds us to think of others before ourselves.

Reflection on Sunday's readings:

First reading: In the first reading, God, through Malachi, addresses those who do not sincerely practice their faith. Malachi says: "You have turned aside from the way." The "Way" with a capital "W" was what early Christians were called. It stems from Jesus' statement, "I am the way, the truth, and the life." Malachi points out that turning aside from the way is an unacceptable and insincere act. Acting in this way is the opposite of humility.

Second Reading: St. Paul understood what it meant to be humble. His focus was always on the faith and on Christ, not any personal glorification. St. Paul says, "We were determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but our very selves as well." Paul makes it clear-he was among the Thessalonians to give something not to take something from them. Paul says, "And for this reason, we give thanks to God unceasingly, that, in receiving the word of God from hearing us, you received not a human word, but the word of God." Paul could see how effective it is with those who hear it and believe it. Paul knew that there was power in the Word of God to change lives. Jesus was truly the greatest among them, but He always spoke of Himself and viewed Himself as a servant. This is the true meaning of "humility".
