November 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Our diocese will participate in the national collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) on November 18/19. Your support for this collection brings much-needed help and change to our brothers and sisters across the country. Nationally, CCHD-funded groups tackle a wide range of economic and social justice challenges, including housing, education, mitigating the impacts of climate change, and advocating for healthy foods in urban food deserts. In addition to making a national impact, the CCHD collections allow us to help those living in poverty or suffering from the symptoms of poverty right here in our own community.

Some of the ministries in our diocese have benefited from funds from the CCHD collections:

- Diocesan "Culture of Life Conference."
- Justice United Seeking Transformation, an interfaith non-profit based in Escambia County, addressing the high rates of youth arrests and lack of affordable housing.
- Capital Area Justice Ministry is an interfaith non-profit based out of Leon County seeking to address gun violence and the lack of affordable housing in the Tallahassee Area.

In addition, our Director of Advocacy and Justice has been working with local organizations and parishioners to promote the Good News in other ways:

- Floridians for Alternative to the Death Penalty seeks to end the use of the death penalty in Florida.
- Sponsorship of parishioners to attend the Eucharistic Revival in Indianapolis in summer 2024.

All of these organizations are in line with Catholic Social Teaching, and there is a strong Catholic presence in the leadership of these organizations/ministries.

Thank you for your support of this year's CCHD collection.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend William Wack, CSC
Bishop of Pensacola-Tallahassee

Today, we are reminded that we will be called to give an account for the gifts God has given us-physical, intellectual and material gifts and the gift of time. The privilege of these gifts is helping us to advance the coming of the Kingdom of God. Let us embrace these gifts of Time, Talent and Treasure, so that when our time ends, we are faithful servants.

Reflection on Sunday's readings:

First reading: Today's readings remind us to not live for "here and now", but rather with eternity in mind. We must remember that we will be called to give an account for the gifts God has given us. – our physical, intellectual and material gifts as well as the gift of time, itself. Are you making the best use of our gifts with the time we have been given to use them?

Second Reading: St. Paul gives us a lens through which to do this type of self-examination. He reminds us of our true identity as disciples of Christ. "Let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober. We are not to be living for ourselves and for the pleasure of immediate gratification, but rather to advance the Kingdom of Heaven. Do not abuse the privilege of helping to advance the coming of the Kingdom of God. You must use these gifts to embrace the stewardship way of life, using all the gifts entrusted to us – Time, Talent and Treasure- in such a way that at the end of our life on this earth, we will hear these words from our Father:"Well done, my good and faithful servant....Come, share your master's joy."
