Directory Cards are still being Collected

With the many new parishioners at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, professional services and trades people are always needed. Index cards have been passed around to each family. If you have a business or work at a business that could be of benefit to our parishioners, please provide the name and contact information. Also, if you have had successful results from service companies or trade persons – electricians, plumbers, housekeepers, handymen and others, please provide their contact information. Please place the completed cards in the offertory basket or in the basket, on the left by the Holy Water Font, as you exit the church.
