Our New Sanctuary Bell

Many of you may remember Monsignor Mark Merdian, he has celebrated mass here, at SEAS over the past few years, while visiting.

He has generously donated the bell to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church. Monsignor acquired the bell after St. Joseph Church, also a mission church, in Wedron, Illinois was closed.

Monsignor Mark is the current pastor of the Ottawa Catholic Churches in Ottawa, Illinois.

Thank You Monsignor Mark Merdian.

Directory Cards are still being Collected

With the many new parishioners at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, professional services and trades people are always needed. Index cards have been passed around to each family. If you have a business or work at a business that could be of benefit to our parishioners, please provide the name and contact information. Also, if you have had successful results from service companies or trade persons – electricians, plumbers, housekeepers, handymen and others, please provide their contact information. Please place the completed cards in the offertory basket or in the basket, on the left by the Holy Water Font, as you exit the church.
